Fifty Years of the Atlantic Coast Conference

The Atlantic Coast Conference has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. During the league's first 49 years, ACC schools have won 85 team national championships and 151 individual student-athletes have earned the coveted title of NCAA Champion.

May 8: The ACC is founded at the Sedgewick Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members: Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest.
 June 14: A set of bylaws is adopted and the name officially becomes the Atlantic Coast Conference.
 Feb. 25: The NC State men's swim team wins the first ACC Championship in any sport.
 Dec. 4: The University of Virginia becomes the league's eighth member.

ACC Women's Basketball Traveling Pictorial Exhibit

The Atlantic Coast Conference's Women's Basketball Traveling Pictorial Exhibit was built by graphic designer Scott Schetrompf of Point Concepts Design in Raleigh, N.C. The display includes over 250 photos from the 25 year history of the ACC Women's Basketball Tournament, including 20 life-size cutout photos that feature both players and coaches and 30 team photos representing the champions of the first 25 league tournaments.

Built in the Fall of 2001, the display traveled throughout the 2001-02 season, leading up to the 25th ACC Women's Basketball Tournament, held March 1-4 at the Greensboro Coliseum in Greensboro, N.C. In all, the exhibit visited 10 sites in three states, including the 2002 NCAA Final Four in San Antonio, Texas.

For the 2002-03 season, the display was updated to include photos from the 2002 Women's Basketball Tournament and a new wall was added to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

As the sponsor for the traveling schedule of the Traveling Pictorial Exhibit, Raycom/Jefferson-Pilot Sports have again demonstrated their commitment to the Atlantic Coast Conference and the storied history of the Women's Basketball Tournament.

The longtime partnership between the ACC, Raycom Sports, and Jefferson-Pilot Sports as the media rightsholders and the founders of ACC Properties, has been admired nationwide for its success. The ACC has flourished in its television exposure for Men's and Women's Basketball, Football and Olympic Sport coverage throughout the year. ACC LIVE, the weekly magazine-style show, airs on Monday evening 40 weeks of the year, showcasing the best highlights of the week throughout the various sports' seasons.

The student-athletes, coaches, administrators and the Conference wish to thank and salute Raycom Sports and Jefferson-Pilot Sports for joining in this partnership and celebrating the Pictorial Exhibit.
